1 Policy Statement

The primary need for all students at Brook Academy is either their complex Social, Emotional and Mental Health, or their Speech, Language and Communication Needs, but can also be both. These complex needs are often expressed through the presentation of challenging behaviour. In addition, a significant number of our students have a range of additional educational needs, which fall under the areas of Learning and Cognition and / or Social Communication and Interaction.

Our aim at Brook Academy is to provide all students with a holistic and personalised education, where every student has a voice, is supported therapeutically to overcome barriers, and empowered to contribute to society through a sense of belonging and accomplishment.

2 Aims

Our key aims are:

- that our practice reflects Brook Academy's vision statement.
- that all young people receive the provision that is set out in their Education, Health and Care Plan (EHCP).
- to identify the changing needs of our young people.
- to respond to the changing needs of our young people and provide appropriate interventions to ensure that our students can reach their potential and lead happy and fulfilling lives.
- to create a safe and secure learning environment where our students can develop the skills they need to participate in their communities, and transition safely into adulthood.

3 Objectives

The key objectives are to:

- prioritise effective communication with all key stakeholders, particularly parents and carers, and actively seek ways of involving and supporting them in the development and education of their child, as set out by the SEND Code of Practice 2014 and the Children and Families Act, 2014.
- provide a relevant, broad, and balanced curriculum that meets the needs of all our learners, enabling them to thrive and experience success.
- raise the aspirations and self-belief of our young people.
- provide staff with up-to-date and relevant information on all the special educational needs of our students.
- provide staff with opportunities to discuss the needs of our cohort.
- empower staff through the provision of appropriate training and professional development.
- provide a database within which key information on young people can be collected, processed, and provided, which is compliant with GDPR.

- act promptly and decisively when decisions need to be made about the support that is needed for an individual, or specific group of students.

4 Legislation and Guidance

This Policy is based on the statutory Special Educational Needs and Disability \(SEND\) Code of Practice and the following legislation:

- Part 3 of the Children and Families Act 2014, which sets out schools' responsibilities for students with SEND.
- The Special Educational Needs and Disability Regulations 2014, which set out local authorities' and schools' responsibilities for education, health and care (EHC) plans, SEN co-ordinators (SENCOs) and the special educational needs (SEN) information report.
- The Equality Act 2010 (section 20), which sets out the school's duties to make reasonable adjustments for students with disabilities.
- The Public Sector Equality Duty (section 149 of the Equality Act 2010), which set out the school's responsibilities to eliminate discrimination, harassment, and victimisation; and advance equality of opportunity and foster good relations between people who share a protected characteristic (which includes having a disability) and those who do not share it.
- The Governance Handbook, which sets out trustees responsibilities for students with SEND.
- The School Admissions Code, which sets out the school's obligation to admit all students whose education, health and care (EHC) plan names the school, and its duty not to disadvantage, unfairly, children with a disability or with special educational needs.

6 Inclusion and Equal Opportunities

At Brook Academy, we strive to create an inclusive teaching environment that offers all students, no matter their needs and abilities, a broad, balanced, and challenging curriculum. We are committed to offering all students the chance to thrive and fulfil their aspirations.

7 Definitions

A student has SEN if they have a learning difficulty or disability that requires special educational provision to be made for them (SEND code of practice, 2014).

They have a learning difficulty or disability if they have:

- a significantly greater difficulty in learning than most others of the same age, or
- a disability which prevents or hinders them from making use of facilities of a kind generally provided for others of the same age in mainstream schools

Special educational provision is educational or training provision that is additional to, or different from, that made available to other children or young people of the same age by mainstream schools. All students at The Sky Academy have a Special Educational Need that is formalised in an Education and Health Care Plan (EHCP).

Disability

Students are considered to have a disability if they have a physical or mental impairment that has a substantial and long-term adverse effect on their ability to do normal daily activities.

The school will make reasonable adjustments for students with disabilities, so that they are not at a substantial disadvantage compared with their peers.

The 4 areas of need

The needs of students with SEND are grouped into four broad areas. Students can have needs that fall into more than one area, and their needs may change over time. Many students who attend The Brook Academy have needs in more than two areas of SEND.

Area of Need
Communication and Interaction	Students with needs in this area have difficulty communicating with others. They may have difficulty understanding what is being said to them, have trouble expressing themselves, or do not understand or use the social rules of communication. Students who are on the autism spectrum often have needs that fall in this category.
Cognition and Learning	Students with learning difficulties usually learn at a slower pace than their peers. A wide range of needs are grouped in this area, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • specific learning difficulties, which impact one or more specific aspects of learning, such as: dyslexia, dyscalculia, and dyspraxia • moderate learning difficulties • severe learning difficulties Profound and multiple learning difficulties, which is where students are likely to have severe and complex learning difficulties, as well as a physical disability or sensory impairment.

Social, Emotional, and Mental Health	These needs may reflect a wide range of underlying difficulties or disorders. Students may have: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • mental health difficulties such as anxiety, depression, or an eating disorder • attention deficit disorder, attention deficit hyperactive disorder, or attachment disorder • suffered adverse childhood experiences These needs can manifest in many ways, for example as challenging, disruptive, or disturbing behaviour, or by the student becoming withdrawn or isolated.
Sensory and / or physical	Students with these needs have a disability that hinders them from accessing the educational facilities generally provided. Students may have: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • a sensory impairment such as vision impairment, hearing impairment, or multi-sensory impairment • a physical impairment These students may need ongoing additional support and equipment to access all the opportunities available to their peers.
